CU Boulder Student Login on CU South Denver Computers

Background

CU Boulder students have the ability to login and print from CU South Denver computers. This guide will explain how to login into the computers with your CU Boulder student account.

How to Login?

1. Go to the computer. You should see the following screen:

Notice the “Log on to: UNIVERSITY?” We will need to change that to login.

2. When logging in as a UC Denver or Denver Anschutz student, the “Log on to” will list UNIVERSITY. To log in as a CU Boulder student, the “Log on to” need to be listed as AD. This is achieved by typing in AD\username.

Notice the “Log on to: AD?” Type your username and password to login
